Purpose of these Awards: The purpose of these 2 new national awards is to help raise more funds to allow our association to support more youth fashion projects especially in regional & remote centres of this state & country. These awards competitions will also allow us to discover new talent & assist to promote them on our web site, videos & via media as well as guide them to even greater success in their chosen careers in the fashion or entertainment industry.

Youth Project Success: To date through developing these above youth fashion projects we have seen the discovery of 20 international models & dancers, 7 Australian fashion design award winners, 2005 Miss Indy, 2007 & 2009 Miss Universe Australia title winners. We have also seen many past entrants go on to establish successful careers in the fashion industry. A lot of this success was due to the many professional training classes we have staged. These awards will offer 2 very educational training classes which we believe will even better prepare entrants to enter the workforce, improve their public speaking skills, lead a healthier lifestyle & improve their current fashion look as well as learning more about the entertainment industry in general.

Professional Training Classes: Finalist in both Miss Fashion Australia & Rachael Finch Rising Star Awards will participate in some very informative & rewarding workshops. * For more information please view Guide to 2010 Opal Fashion Bash
